We talk of choosing our friends;

but friends are self-elected.

You are always my friend when I am happy or when I am sad when I am all alone or when I am with people You are always my friend if I see you today or if I see you a year from now if I talk to you today or if I talk to you a year from now You are always my friend and though through the years we will change it doesn't matter what I do or it doesn't matter what you do Throughout our lifetime you are always my friend

— Susan Polis Schutz

A friend is a present you give yourself.

Happiness is time spent with friends.

A friend is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.

A friend is someone who knows all about you and still likes you.

It is through friendship that people excel.

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

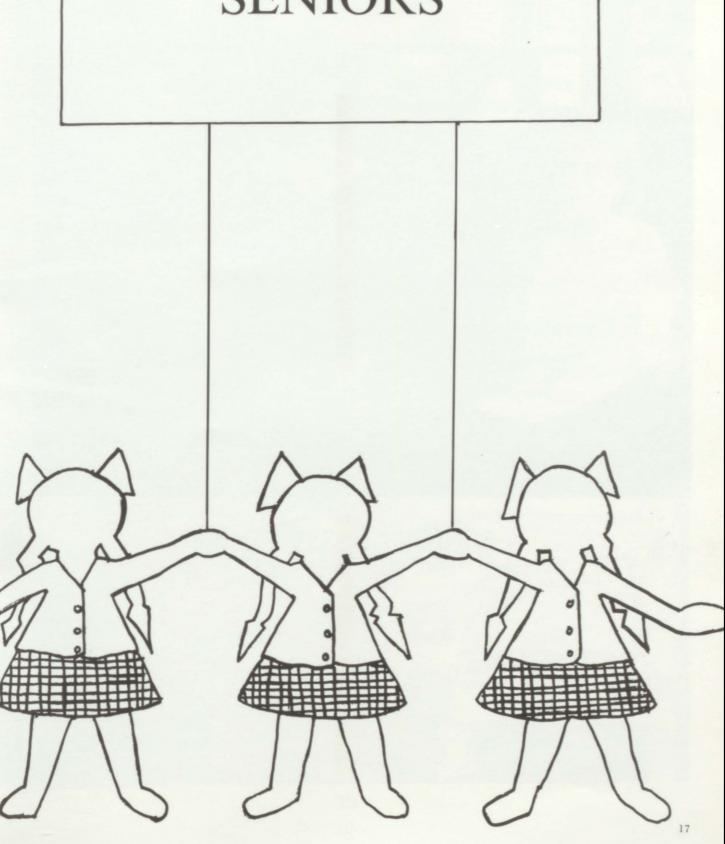

Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together.

The Junior Class had a very active year. They busied themselves preparing for college: taking SAT's, ACT's and writing research papers. The entire Junior Class looked forward to the big date the Junior Prom, on April 14, and to the Ring Ceremony when they received their Senior rings. The major fund raisers included a Valentine's Day Dance, and a Lip Sync contest - the proceeds of which were given to the Bishops' Relief Fund. As the Juniors say, "We are fun, we are great, we are the SENIORS of '88."

Clockwise: Freshmen get to know each other better during lunch. Madeline and Debbie enjoy their time together in the hall. The Retreat for the Freshmen was a growing experience and made them closer. The surprise brought around by Kris Kringles was very exciting for Laura and Modica. Freshmen take time out to smile for the camera.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Dear fellow students,

SVA has indeed been great this year. On behalf of the Student Council I would like to thank you for all of your support and cooperation. Looking through the year, Spirit Week and the Hamel's Carvival stand out as fun times. Moving on, all should be proud of the success of our Thanksgiving and Christmas Service Projects.

The first semester ended on a joyous note with the annual Twelve Days of Christmas Skit. The excitement did not end with first semester. In the second semester, the most rewarding activites were our city Service Project and Student Council Week. Other exciting events included the January picnic with Loyola, Movie Night and, of course, the traditional field day. The 1986–87 Student Council truly hopes that your school year was wonderful. We also hope you enjoy your summer and we wish you the best of luck next year.

Sincerely, Marjorie Thigpen Student Council President

L'IL VIN

The Li'l Vin staff consisted of the school "Snoops". They uncovered the little-known but interesting events, as well as the all-important ones. They informed and entertained the student's reporting SVA life from a humorous viewpoint. The officers were: W. Hollingsworth, Editor; C. Erdie, Secretary; D. Tucker, Co-editor.

YEARBOOK CLASS

The Yearbook Class, taught by Sr. Rita, is a required course for those who wish to be on the Vincentian Staff the following year. It is in the class that the students learn the guidelines for a well-planned yearbook, how to design lay outs and how to crop photos. They meet after school every other Thursday when some other emergency does not use up the time.

The difficulties and responsibilities faced by Staff members are explained to them and they are urged to drop out of the class unless they have the enthusiasm and the determination to overcome and to accept them all.

YEARBOOK WORKSHOP

Between final exams and the Honors' Assembly, the Yearbook Staff attended a workshop. Under the guidance of Mr. Bill Oliver, representative of the Taylor Publishing Company, and Sister Rita, the 1987 Vincentian was laid out. Members discovered that much patience, creativity, and cooperation were needed to effectively plan and execute a well-organized and interesting book. Each girl chose the section she wished to work on. Then, each group decided the details of that section.

The Faculty Section Group: O. Aldin, R. Meehan, C. Lolly, and E. Lowe, worked with Jennifer Evans at the workshop. Later, Staci Smith assumed the editorship. The group featured the school's competent and caring Administration and Staff. Composing copy was their most difficult task; while seeing ideas become realities was the most rewarding.

The Activities Section group directed by Andrea Juneau, attempted to give equal representation to each activity. The girls agreed that assembling the members of the various clubs for their group pictures was the most demanding part of their highly challenging but enjoyable work. Members were: S. King, J. Sarpy, M. McCain, K. Maranto, L. Carmody, and D. Ware.

The Personalities Section recognizes SVA students who are outstanding in academic, social, or civic activities. The editor, Susan Butcher effectively worked with the members: E. Scott, T. Matlock, and J. Manco.

The Student Life Section attempts to capture the "true student life" at its most essential level. Editor Laura Dean worked steadily with the other members M. Carmody, and M. Thigpen.

The Underclassmen Section staff should be familiar with all the students in the school, so as to give them fair representation. Editor Michele Moore and her coworkers K. Bordelon, Courtney Hall, and S. Walker made a brave attempt to fulfill this obligation.

The Senior Section has the goal of producing a section which will be most MEaningful to the Seniors for years to come. Editor Shannon Crosby, and fellow-workers W. Hollingsworth, C. Antoine, and S. Smith worked hard at this task.

SCIENCE CLUB

From the Bean-bag toss booth of the Carnival to the Spring Camping Trip, this year's Science Club has kept its members busy. #### DEBATE

The 1986-1987 Debate team initiated the reincarnation of St. Vincent's in the National Forensic League, and has contributed greatly to the school's success. In preparation for the year, two teams Maranto-Wallace and Hall-McCain spent two weeks at debate camps in Kansas and Texas, respectively. The team won places at every tournament in attended. Novice team members M. Orr, and P. Valentine have been outstanding.

When not debating, the squad is kept busy with library research or with their softball team. known as the "Briefcasers". Encouraged by an anonymous gift of a beautiful van and supplied with travel expense money from the parent's club, the team has throughly enjoyed its several trips it made.

GALS

When Ms. Gromolsky looked through the GALS "hour" box,

She said, "Bee"

Because each Gal had been as busy as a bee! Some went to the level of painting faces;

To help get hours and fill up spaces.

Then she saw hours for "tea girls" -

Oh, yes, some had ushered, and even put on pearls.

Another card said, "Rose'Center"

At first, bewildered — then 'ding!

She remembered that some had gone there to sing. So many cards had new projects on them —

Not waitresses at diners, but caring for children at Shriners.

They had enjoyed this new service so much

That they had gone back — a whole, whole bunch.

Ms. Gromolsky now could see

How much fun the girls had giving "service" And how easy, getting hours could be.

During the first semester the Club was enlightened by speakers from the Barbizon Modeling Agency and from Sharon's Beauty Salon. After the Christmas holidays the entire membership got involved in the play, "Little Miss Christy." Not only the cast, but also the committees for props, lights and sound, costumes, advertisement, makeup, and scenery labored diligently for six weeks. With such devoted members, the play's success was inevitable.

LOYOLA CHEERLEADERS

The fourteen SVA-Loyola cheerleaders successfully represented their schools at Northwestern NCA summer camp, returning with the first place trophy, a Spirit Stick, and the "Megaphone" trophy for being the most Congenial Squad. Evidently, under the guidance of Coach Donny Huffstickler, they have learned more than just how to cheer!

Practicing long hours every day in the summer heat is a great sacrifice which is more than balanced by the rewards. They have placed first in the South Park Mall competition for the last hree years. This year they also won the best "Coke Cheer" and brought home a case of coke, a trophy, and five hundred dollars. Continuing to practice school nights as well as weekends, the squad was honored with the priviledge to compete in Orlando, Florida at the National Cheerleading Competition on December 27. As the squad overwhelmed the audience with their routine they were rewarded with the only standing ovation. With the talents and knowledge of Coaches Raymond Williams, and Brad Arnold, the squad received first place in the nation with over a thousand dollars in prizes. For the fourteen cheerleaders, the past memories and success of their goal was worth the work and sweat they put into practice.

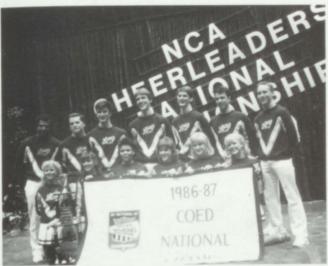

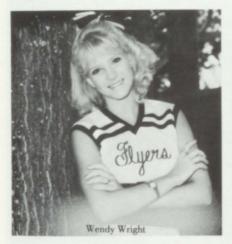

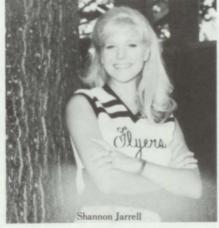

"We Love It!"

DANCELINE

The 1986-87 "HIGH FLYERS" definitely showed their school spirit when they attended summer camp at Northeast Lousiana University. The team walked away with the "Best overall Sweepstakes" trophy, 1st place in Jazz and 2nd place in Camp Routine. They won the Spirit Stick and 29 out of 30 blue ribbons. The team competed in Pierre Bossier's Danceline competition. The "HIGH FLYERS" represented the school in the half-time entertainment at the Independence Bowl in December along with other area high schools. After performing in several elimination contest's they are headed for California in hopes of capturing national honors.

FOOTBALL

Football:

Football:

Loyola is not known for its outstanding football team, but this year, they improved their reputation a little. The team began practicing, in full pads, in the sweltering heat of August. They and their Head coach, Tony Rinaudo, were determined to improve, and they did. They went from no wins to three wins out of their ten games. St. Vincent's girls are proud of their brother school and will always support the boys. The team's success is in the hearts of the SVA circle. the SVA girls.

FRIENDLY RELATIONS

What would St. Vincent's girls do without Loyola boys? Not a lot! Loyola is St. Vincent's brother school. Together St. Vincent's and Loyola have planned several social functions such as dances, picnics, pep rallies, debate tournaments, and sports' related activities. St. Vincent's girls are avid fans of Loyola's football, basketball and baseball teams. Throughout the years many longlasting friendships have developed.

FRIENDS GROW CLOSER

Saint Vincent's has had a "best yet" year! It began with a friendly and smiling welcome to freshmen and new students; and an enthusiastic greeting for returning classmates. As the months rolled by love and friendship grew stronger between individuals, among groups, and with the administration. The Activities Section Members appreciated the cooperation given by the student body, especially in the scheduling and rescheduling of pictures.

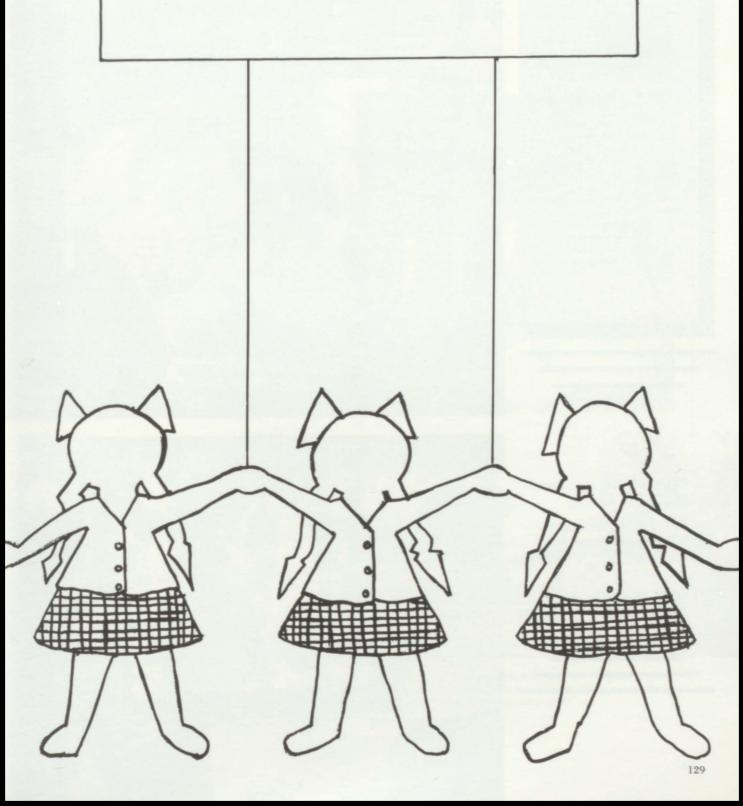

Clockwise: Seniors reinforce the "inner man" during break. Friends are friends forever. We love you, Freshmen. A. Batson and H. Hendrix visited Commander Salamander at Close-Up.

STUDENT LIFE

CARNIVAL

Each year Student Council sponsors a school-wide fund raiser. The money raised at this function provides the yearly funds for activities in each club and class. For the third consecutive year the fund raiser was a carnival. However, this year it had a new twist. Rather than being held at school, the event was held at Hamel's Park. From 3:00 to 6:00 the afternoon of Sunday, September 21, 1986, students with friends and families enjoyed delicious hamburgers, rode rides, and participated in numerous games sponsored by the clubs and classes. The games ranged in variety from the Freshman Go Fish Booth to the Dunking Booth. As usual, the students worked hard to make this year's carnival successful and all who attended the grand event enjoyed themselves.

"Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself."

SENIOR RETREAT 1986

On November 13, 1986, fifty-five Seniors returned from their retreat at Maryhill Camp. They had spent two days and nights in Pinevill, La. under the guidance of Father Steve Wright. The girls drank hot cocoa, took long walks, laughed and cried. Watching films, singing songs, listening to talks, and participating in group discussions, brought these girls to a better understanding of one another. As hearts began to open, tears began to shed. Love, which had been so long silent, surfaced. Creating new and stronger friendship with one another and with God, prepared them for the future. The retreat ended with a Mass, and as they sang the closing songs, the music had a special sweetness — It must have been God's Love!

Clockwise: Morgan, Renee, Maureen, Colleen, and Laura change free time to fun time. Seniors congregate on Maryhill Campus. Father Steve Wright shares the Sacrament of Eucharist with Michelle. The bus ride home was a time of joy, songs, and smiles.

Saturday mornings at eight o'clock there is a traditional ritual for those SVA students who choose to ignore designated rules. Chewing gum, tardiness for class or school, failure to bring an excuse for absence, being without a blazer at assemblies are common ways to acquire a beautiful pink slip. These girls come bright and early to perform such chores as cracking pecans, smashing cans, cleaning sections of the school, and removing gum. They may be lucky enough to help teachers who are working in their classrooms. Most girls console themselves with the thought, "If God meant for us to be angels, He would have given us wings."

If God had mean't us to be angels, he would have given us wings.

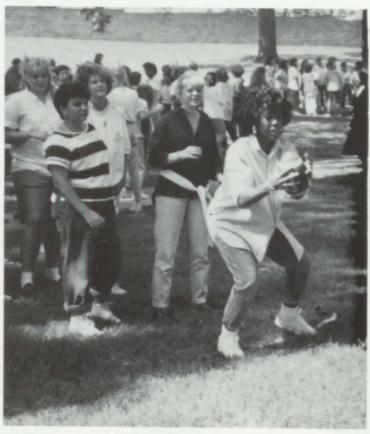

Clockwise: Carmen Antoine, Laura Guanella, Rosa Brucia, and Kendal Elrod, wake up early Saturday to shell pecans. Olivia Aldin and Elizabeth Lowe pick up trash around the school yard. Julie Tauzin and Jan Glover spend their Saturday at detention, cleaning the art room.

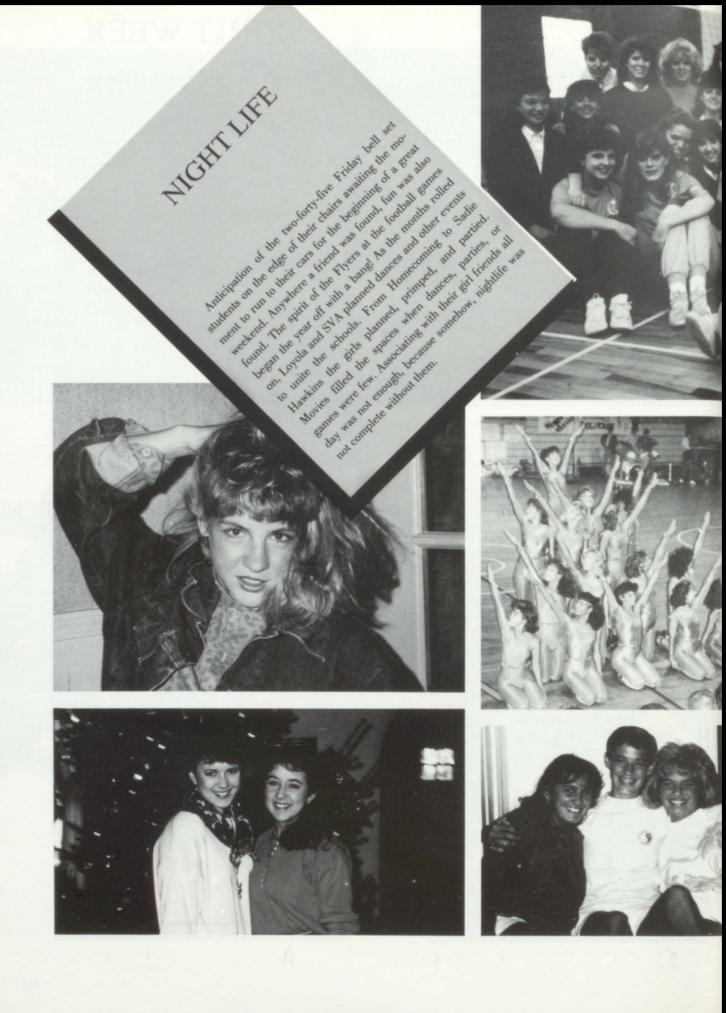

Clockwise: The Green-Bean Team unites to show its spirit. The Smurfs sing their fight song in the Songfest competition. Rebecca Dugan attempts to put a penny in a jar without using her hands. Laura Carmody and Amy Batson are minus a musketeer on "famous couple" day. Students enjoy the Laugh Olympic Games prepared for them by the Student Council. Hut Hut! Winnifered, is it going to be a touchdown?

SPIRIT WEEK "SVA is great"

On Friday, September 26, the Student Council, wishing to promote school spirit rather than class spirit, divided the entire student body into four teams, composed of members from each class for the celebration of "Spirit Week". The first event was the songfest, where adorned with their team colors each group sang original songs and cheers. Other days were devoted to observing. "Fifties Day", "Sweatshirt Day", "Color Day" and "Famous Couples Day". The Spirit grew until even faculty members became involved. The "Laff Olympics" crowned the week. Relay contests ranging from the "Football Throw" to "Spoon Clothing" created an almost ecstatic atmosphere. The day ended but the enthusiasm remained, for now, it was the weekend!

"You grow up the day you have your first real laugh at yourself."

"Be Careful How You Live, You May Be the Only Bible Some People Will Ever Read."

Clockwise: Seniors love to relax. Laura W. and Lee C. rejoice that they are no longer in training. Football games bring out basic instincts of Loyola fans. Stephanie W. and Catherine C. enjoy being with their Loyola friend, Charles Black. Jan G. and Evelyn S. attend a Christmas party. Amy H. prepares for a night on the town. Danceline performances are always "crowd-pleasers."

SVA students make friends in the community

"The best gifts are tied with heartstrings."

SVA girls find joy, not only in school activities, but also in community involvement. The GALS (Give A Little Service) Club was probably the largest at school this year. At Christmas and Thanksgiving all students contributed to service projects. At Thanksgiving various items were collected for the Family Violence Center. At Christmas, each class adopted two needy families. In March, the SVA Student Council initiated YES, Youth Enhances Shreveport), a project to help clean and beautify the city parks. Other area schools participated in this project. Every year each senior volunteers 24 hours of her time to community service. Thus, SVA students can be found throughout Shreveport.

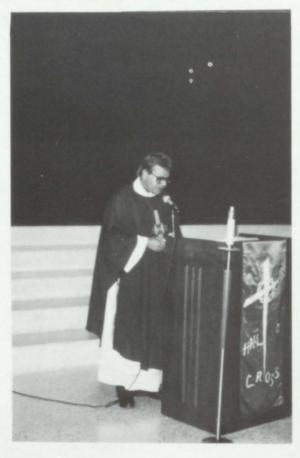

Clockwise: K. Kadair and friends bring Christmas gifts to needy families. L. Guarriella, T. Boone, J. Tiffany, and T. Lites deliver food. C. Brown signs up for LSUMC Senior Service project. Working for Family Violence Center is real service. S. Walker and C. Cooper help kids have fun. Learning Service from Fr. Wright was an easy task. O. Aldin and E. Lowe help clean up.

MASS AND ASSEMBLIES

Masses and Assemblies are an important part of the schedule of the Saint Vincent students. They enrich their lives spiritually as well as communicating to them the factors that will affect all who are involved in and with the school. They celebrate God by participation in the Masses which honor the Saints and the Holy Days of the Church's year. The assemblies give them an opportunity to recognize the recipients of honors, and keep them informed of important events pertaining to the school. They also offer entertainment in the form of speakers and outside exhibits.

Prayer should be the key of the day, and the lock of the night.

Clockwise: Father Govie leads the school in prayer. Students stand for the Entrance Procession. Thao, Ednelle, Samantha, and Winnifred recruit students for the newspaper staff during the annual "Skit Assembly". To Reneé Higgins, the woods are a perfect setting to read the Bible. Dr. Webb of Centenary College congratualtes Lori Rucker, the DAR Citizenship Award recipient during an assembly honoring her achievements.

Food, Food, and Food.

It's 9:35, the bell rings, and the mad rush to the cafeteria begins. At break, St. Vincent's girls consume everything from powdered donuts to TAB. This "snack" is to hold them through the next two longest classes of the day, the ones before lunch. The lunch gourmets bring a microwavable feast from home; while the others buy chips, crackers, and candy bars that are always there to tempt even the most disciplined dieters. The cafeteria has always been a place to catch up with friends and socialize, but most of us use it for its real purpose, to EAT!

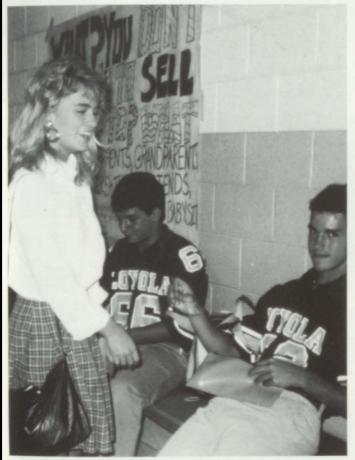

Clockwise: Emily Hogan goes "ape" at lunchtime. Cheryl, Melissa, Tracy, Jennifer, Christine and Laura have a hard time learning to spell. Kim and Staci "studion a test during lunch. Rishea supports Loyola by buying football tickets at lunch. Seniors and Father Wright have lunch at Mary Hill. Cheryl and Tracey share friendly lunch.

"Friendship is to be purchased only by friendship."

HOLIDAYS "ALL PEOPLE SMILE IN THE SAME LANGUAGE"

Holidays play an important role at St. Vincent's. The pumpkin decorating contest at Halloween showed each class's creativity and imagination. At Thanksgiving, a feast was enjoyed by all. Everyone's favorite, Christmas, was celebrated by a door decoration contest, the naming of spirit girls, and exchange of gifts. As one can see, holidays play an important role in student life.

DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL.

Father-Daughter Dessert-Party is an annual event at St. Vincent's. It is a special evening for all the "dad-dies" and their "little girls," and is greatly enjoyed because it gives them a chance to get together and talk, as well as, show off their daddies. The seniors provide the entertainment, and the mothers provide a wonderful variety of desserts. Few are willing to miss such a fun filled evening.

Clockwise: The Seniors carry on tradition by carrying candles at Christmas mass. Each club participates in a door decorating contest at Christmas time. Marjorie, Colleen, and Carmen say, "We pity the fool who didn't come to "Dad-Daughter" night." Modica, Bennett, Kristen, Ashley, Carla and Kristie spend a pleasureable evening with their fathers. According to "Wheel of Fortune," Daddy's Little Girls" are awesome. Class pumpkins show the true Halloween spirit. Carmen A., Laura C., Erin S., Maureen M., Staci S. join hands as all students give thanks at the Thanksgiving Feast.

If I could paint a picture,
Of the love inside my heart,
I would paint you and I my friend,
Together never to part.
I would craft with skill,
The details that I know,
For all the world to stop and heed,
The true friend that I'd show.
I would paint the memories,
That we've come to share,
I'd paint myself next to you,
So you'd know I would be there.
I would carefully place upon a wall,
For everyone to see,
The special friend in you,

The true friend you were to me.

SADD

DON'T BOOZE AND CRUISE

STUDENTS AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING is a new club at SVA which became active in January. Its main purpose is to spread knowledge about the consequences of drinking and driving, and to increase awareness of the problem among teen-agers. SADD officers as well as all members are required to sign a CONTRACT FOR LIFE with their parents. The student agrees to call her parent if she has been drinking or if she intends to get into a car with a driver who has. The parent agrees to provide a safe way home for the girl.

SADD officers and their faculty advisor, Mrs. Aldin, planned some exciting activities to promote participation. The students' response was most gratifying. The officers are: President, Courtney Hall; Vice President, Margaret Carmody; Secretary, Natalie Lewis; Parliamentarian, Andrea Juneau.

YES

Y.E.S. (or, YOUTH ENHANCING SHREVEPORT), was initiated by the SVA Student Council this year. All area high school students were invited to participate in the project. On Saturday, March 7, 1987, students from Loyola, Captain Shreve, Caddo Magnet, Fair Park, Notre Dame, Huntington Park, Southwood, and St. Vincent's worked to clean up and beautify area parks. Over a hundred young people picked up trash and planted flowers in a cooperative effort to make Shreveport a better place to live.

S. Clark, W. Sell, L. Boehmer, L. Carmody, C. Cowley, J. Clark, S. Crosby, C. Erdie, C. Cooper, S. Sharbeno, T. Wallace, E. Shirley, R. Higgins, C. Lolley, M. McCabe, J. Fraccastoro, M. Moore, B. Michaels, M. Ostteen, K. Maranto, K. Mull, D. Davis, M. Thigpen, A. Cush.

On November 16, 1986, fifty-eight extremely excited young women, and their sponsors, Mrs. Lockard and Miss Gromulsky departed from Shreveport for Washington, D.C. to participate in the Close-Up program. During their trip they toured various parts of Washington including the Vietnam War Memorial, Lincoln's Memorial, Jefferson memorial, the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Williamsburg, and Georgetown. The girls enjoyed a real experience of politics, witnessed the legislative, judicial, and executive bodies of government in action. They returned home on November 22, 1986, exhausted but delighted with their many beautiful memories.

On the 12th and 13th of January, 10 members of the National Evangelization Team, or NET, conducted an exciting and moving retreat. The entire student body benefitted and had a great time!

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
In verdant pastures He gives me repose;
Beside restful waters He leads me;
He refreshes my soul.
He guides me in right paths
for His name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your nod and your staff that give me courage.

These pictures represent the beauty and education that the old St. Vincent's Academy gave to past graduates.

The Daughters of the Cross brought the spirit of the Old school to the new; and the memories of high school years will keep that spirit alive for generations to come.

I walk beside you many times
in memories of the golden days
we've shared.
I laugh aloud,
remembering things you've said . . .
I'm touched when I recall how much you've cared
Sometimes I hear your laughter
in my thoughts,
and see that smile
that's brightened
many a day . . .
